

The Guidance Counselor Chronicles

Summer 2018

2018 has started strong! It is never too early to begin to look ahead and plan for the future. Summer will be upon us before we know it. This is a great time to take part in summer camps, leadership conferences and more. Take a look at some of the top opportunities out there and decide if they are for you. This is one more chance to learn something new, another opportunity to put on your resume and just a great way to have fun and meet new people.
